The grade point average (GPA) referenced on an academic transcript is a cumulative GPA depending on which career classes are completed for a given semester (e.g. undergraduate or graduate). Because the GPA is cumulative and reflects all academic work completed at the institution, the GPA does not start over for those students who pursue a second degree within the same career.

Semester Honor Roll for Undergraduate students who complete at least 12 credit hours with all passing grades and a semester GPA of at least 3.200.

One credit hour consists of one 50-minute lecture period or one three-hour laboratory period per week for a semester of 16 weeks.

Grade point values based on A = 4.000 scale.
